

Public Pricing™, LLC
Power of Public Opinion Promotion
GENERAL PUBLIC PARTICIPATION INFORMATION/FORM

The Public Pricing™ system's foundation is getting the public and potential new owners to collaborate with the seller to arrive at true market value within a 30-60 day time frame. In addition to potential new owners submitting sealed letters of interest, we also invite neighbors, members of the real estate community, and other professionals within a community to collaborate by participating in the "Power of Public Opinion Promotion." At Public Pricing™ we believe in the power of public opinion.

Anyone who submits a "Public Pricing™ Opinion" form will receive a minimum of one, plus the possibility for five hundred additional chances, to win $10 Million to more than $100 million dollars in numerous Florida's Power Ball™ drawings. Each form submitted is rewarded with a Power Ball™ drawing opportunity. The person whose written opinion is at, or closest to the final selling price is rewarded with 500 additional chances for a Powerball™ drawing.

To participate please visit the property during published preview times published in the terms and conditions. A preview of the property is not required for you to participate and submit an opinion of value.

Return your completed form at one of the preview dates, by mail, by fax or email no later than the last preview date and time.
